Oxford Finance Corporation is Co-Syndication Agent for $68.5 Million Senior Secured Credit Facility to Great Lakes Home Health and Hospice

Alexandria, VA, February 10, 2011 – Oxford Finance Corporation (Oxford), a subsidiary of Sumitomo Corporation, today announced that it is a Co-Syndication Agent for a $68.5 million senior secured credit facility for Great Lakes Home Health and Hospice (Great Lakes). CIT Healthcare LLC is the Administrative Agent. The facility, which includes a $53.5 million senior secured term loan and a $15 million revolving line of credit, is instrumental in the completion of the acquisition of In-House Hospice, one of the leading hospice and palliative care providers in Michigan and Ohio.

“Oxford is pleased to have the opportunity to be a part of this financial transaction with Great Lakes,” said Chad D. Norman, managing director for Oxford. “Great Lakes has an experienced management team that has successfully guided the organization through various economic and reimbursement environments, and has an impressive track record of achieving positive organic and acquisition growth.”

“We are pleased to be able to work with Oxford Finance as one of our lending partners,” said William Deary, CEO of Great Lakes. “We look forward to working with them as we continue to expand our home care and hospice presence throughout the Midwest.”

John Pouschine, of Pouschine Cook Capital Management, added, “Oxford Finance is a great partner to help us execute our growth strategy for Great Lakes’ home health and hospice platform.” Great Lakes is a portfolio company of Pouschine Cook Capital Management.
